CSBG PROGRAMS
HELPING PEOPLE. CHANGING LIVES.

HELPING INDIVIDUALS AND FAMILIES

CEDA Community Services Block Grant Programs (CSBG) works to help stabilize and support families and individuals on a path to self-sufficiency. Services are available in communities across suburban Cook County.

ASSESSMENT AND CASE MANAGEMENT

CEDA staff can help people find the skills, knowledge, and resources to get through an emergency, or to conquer difficult problems. Through our assessment process, we will help you name and prioritize the issues that may be holding you back. Acting as your personal guide and coach, CEDA program specialists will help you set your step-by-step plan to a more stable future.

In addition to directing you to programs and assistance in your community, CEDA program specialists may be able to connect you with any of the services in this brochure, as part of the CSBG self-sufficiency toolkit

FINANCIAL LITERACY

Through our partner Ladder Up, CEDA provides financial literacy education to CSBG-eligible individuals to help them better manage their resources by increasing knowledge in budget preparation and management, credit repair, establishing savings plans, etc.

NUTRITION EDUCATION

Workshops focused on nutrition education and obesity prevention will help families make healthy choices within their food budget, and choose active lifestyles. Workshops are through a partnership with University of Illinois Cooperative Extension.

FAMILY NUTRITION

To address food deserts in areas of Cook County suburbs, CSBG has partnered with the Greater Chicago Food Depository to purchase and deliver fresh produce twice per month to a variety of sites to distribute to CSBG-eligible families. A site list is available at www.chicagofoodbank.org

EMPLOYMENT PILOT PROGRAM

Provide job skills enhancements for unemployed CSBG eligible participants through the services and expertise of a contracted employment service provider. The motivated participant may get placement and support leading to permanent employment.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

CSBG scholarships are awarded to assist CSBG-eligible applicants with post-secondary education at accredited Illinois universities, colleges and vocational schools as a means to increase self-sufficiency. Scholarship applications will be available online beginning in April and must be submitted prior to the deadline to be considered for an award. Visit CEDA's web site. ### DENTAL CARE ASSISTANCE

CSBG case management participants may apply for financial assistance to address dental issues to remove barriers to employment, education/training or health maintenance. Payment is made directly to CSBG approved dental care providers and a client contribution is required.

AUTO REPAIR ASSISTANCE

CSBG case management participants may apply for financial assistance for limited auto repair needs to remove barriers to employment, education/training or health maintenance. Payment is made directly to CSBG auto repair vendors and a client contribution is required.

VISION CARE ASSISTANCE

CSBG case management participants may apply for financial assistance for eye exams and glasses to remove barriers to employment, education/training or health maintenance. Eye exams and eye glass services must be by a CSBG approved eye care provider. Payment is made directly to the provider and a client contribution is required.

WATER BILL ASSISTANCE

CSBG case management participants may qualify for emergency help on their water bill to avoid disconnection. Proof of hardship and customer payment toward the bill are required.
